Merry Xmas!
Why we feel that way?
"Merry Xmas"

This is a saying that everybody fires at everybody else on Xmas. day and the day before. Some people means it and some do not, but everybody says it. Our whole heart is in this message of Xmas. cheer.

In it is summed up our appreciation of the liberal patronage, kindly words and generous support, what has been our portion during the year that is nearly gone. We do not wish to get sentimental, we are not going to shed any tears either from joy or any other cause. But we really do think it is eminently appropriate for us at this time to thank our customers for what they are to us and what we are to them and express our earnest desire for the continuance of these friendly and profitable relations.

We say friendly because we enjoy your friendship and trust you enjoy ours. We say profitable because we have gained a profit from our dealing with you and you have gained the same from us. If it were not for our store you would be paying more for the necessities of life and would not find it so convenient and easy to buy the things you want and need.

We have saved you money during the last year. We have helped you in putting at your disposal the best of merchandise, at most reasonable price. Our relations, therefore, have been friendly and mutually profitable. May they continue the same for another year.

Again merry Xmas.
